

DAVID STARR JORDAN WILL TAG BEACH FISH
 LONG BEACH, Jan. 12.—David Starr Jordan, former president of Stanford University, is expected in Long Beach today or tomorrow. He will assist in the classification of the fish specimens in the Long Beach aquarium, the only institution of its kind now existing on the Pacific Coast. More than 100 species of fish are now on exhibition and the total number amounts to 700 live specimens. Unlike other institutions of its kind, the local aquarium is run strictly on the Volstead plan there being not a single specimen of pickled fish on the premises.

LEGION WILL PRESENT FINE FIGHT CARD

Big Double Main Event Scheduled for Next Wednesday

"Chic" Watson vs. Phil Moss, at 148 pounds.
 "Sailor" Patty Ryan vs. Ted Southern, at 134 pounds.
 "Sailor" Rugged Ritchie vs. "Young" Stanley, at 142 pounds.
 "Sailor" Garcia vs. "Young" Leroy, at 124 pounds.
 "Sailor" Gotcho vs. "Kid" Essex, at 120 pounds.
 "Sailor" Riley vs. Eddie Farren, at 118 pounds.

There! That's the card for next Wednesday night at the Legion Hall. And we want to announce, aver, and expostulate that the experts listed in the above galaxy of stars of Flistiana is about the best-matched and most rugged of those who play the gentle game of swat.

The bouts between Watson and Moss, and Ryan and Southern form a double main event, and are return matches. It was claimed that at the last meeting Moss had neglected training, but reports coming from Los Angeles state that he has labored hard and has whipped himself in such a good condition that Watson will have to step lively this time.

Southern also questioned Ryan's ability to put it over on him when he is in good condition, and has prepared himself to give Ryan a real trial.

Wednesday night next will prove to the fans whether Stanley is as good as some claim for him. His handy disposal of Mehan at the last exhibition stamped him as being not only an extremely clever boxer, but as one of those rare birds who can not only box, but carries a real kick in each hand.

Garcia and Leroy are both good and clever and should make some of the fans yell with glee.

Essex has been touted as a boy who carries a kick and can stand almost any amount of punishment. It is well known that he is game to the core, and has a clever way of slipping in that left of his from a right-hand stance in such a way that it not only disconcerts his opponent, but hurts at the same time. But we all know that Gotcho is some little wallop himself, and has many scalps hanging to his belt.

Sailor Riley and Eddie Farren at 118 pounds open the show, and there has not been one eyepener in the last three months that was not a hair-raiser. We look for this one to keep up the record.

Wednesday nights seem to be the popular time for holding these events, and judging by the size of last Wednesday's crowd and its enthusiasm over the splendid showing by the boys, it is advisable to get tickets early. The capacity of the hall is limited, and if the popularity of the Legion shows continues some fans will be disappointed.
